BLINDING WHITE NOISE

ILLUSION & CHAOS

— LYRICS —

DOTS

Children . . . we stand and fight Message . . . we stand and fight
Children . . . we stand and fight

All these days are numbered, lets play the waiting game One by one the fallen will get to take the blame

Elegant, all of them but something's missing, it's more than just happiness They feel cheated, all of them, everyone They feel defeated, it's serious suffering, when will this change?
Boy, you just shove it

ORDER 66

Hold on, don't lose the order
You know it's okay to live and learn How long would you suffer before you sacrifice the sun?
How many times have I been here?
I can never tell Playing with fire feels sincere Even though I'm in hell

I won't fight the one
I turn away from order

So strong, you learn to love her

Game for a feeling Your time is coming Ever closer now slowly we move in, and so we start again Only our finest can hold them in the rain

Blinding white noise, Times have changed Blinding white noise, Times must change so hard bending light, someone tell me how to get through the TV?

How to get through the damn hole?

Once again I begin losing all of my senses

Like a child so unaware How come we all recover?
You know it's okay to be compared How much death have I been near?
Far too much to tell Nothing scarred me more than fear I step forth to tell

I won't fight the one
I turn away from order
We reverse the cell again
I won't fight the one
I turn away from order

CATHARSIS

Behind the walls we seem to know, We have faith in too many things and we just don't know what to choose We have control over everything and we could stand to lose it all

I believe we are a supernova Born onto a dying star
What if we had known, but what if we were never meant to know?
Behind our star

were never meant to know?
We die stranded here Would we survive, or would we die?
Behind our star

NIGHT

I fell into a dream Nothing is what it seems How do they know?
I fell into a dream
I'm at peace.

We want this to be over we believe in so many things that we just don't know what to do.

We have faith in too many things that we just don't know what to choose supernova, tell us once again, will we ever know?

Tell us who we are Born onto a dying star.

Home again
When will I be home again?
We want this to be over

Tell us who we are
We want this to be over, although we need it so badly.

AURORA

I still miss you, how do you fare?
An angel came to me, pulling me back again
With a loving despair

So everybody dies
Everybody drifts away
Everybody dies

I feel lonely, come home swiftly Even though I tried holding you back again
I'm still slipping away Pray for the love, for the need to be free

Pray for the love, for the need to be free For someone you can hold
So everybody dies

Everybody drifts away
Everybody dies

CELESTIAL

I'll never know how something so alive and fine
Could see behind the sun
I'll never know how someone so beautiful Could pine away

Cry . . . we're free again, celestial

I don't know why you can't fight me, resist, abide by fists
Back to back and it's time you knew now, that this is all you had

When we are rejected we lose our way, we're terrified
When we are protected the stars shine light into our lives

I lost my way
I'm fine
I don't know
I don't care

Cry . . . we're free again, celestial

I fell down undiscovered I'm broken, waiting for this endless day to come Please don't turn off the lights, we're having the time of our lives

I don't know why you can't fight me,
resist, abide by fists
Back to back and it's time you knew
now that this is all you had

As life burns out, age old earth rolls on Lights fade out, away

As daylight dies the world will turn it's back on you
As daylight dies the stars will shine for you Don't want to feel like this anymore
Don't want to lose my way again

MAEVA

Alice making me pay with temptation I stray far from wonderland to a place of war White rabbit suggests that I take a few pills

And drink some shit that I've never even seen before

Fields of green and hearts of stone surrounding me
Make for glorious undertones
A pack of cards thrown in my hand

Forgiving castle walls just turn to sand

Are you following me as I try to explain?
Mad Hatter is here, messing with my brain Are you curious now? Dysfunctioning in the clouds
I spent far too long milling in this drain

Fields of green and hearts of stone
surrounding me
Make for glorious undertones
A pack of cards thrown in my hand
Forgiving castle walls just turn to sand

Don't lose the fight and look back It's time to dance We're alive, come together and you'll know, this is India It's so damn hard to let go But take a chance

TRAYUS

Lines, The question's left alone, I will hold on to this for as long as I remember your face

For the love of my brother, You've taken time, My friend, My providence,

Take the time to talk Walk with me a while
Break a promise
Throw an arm around
Seize the day

I watched you go inside
Take your name this time

Holding out a hand hoping I'll believe her, that I'll understand Tell me isn't this the truth, choosing to ignore her, what if it was you?
Tell me how do we get so wrapped up in our own world?
Kill all the lights, this is the last time Everything is grey
And you know they got us on the run, killing as life goes on Same old story, yeah? Same old story.

I can't find myself, I'm sure I live for something But as my mind's eye will tell these little fingers are disgusting not by choice I'll think of something but I'll save some for myself Boys don't believe, don't believe, don't believe it Think about, think about, think about it Be careful what you say because anyone could be listening

watch me do it
Let me break the tide
Breaking water

My hands are still
The words are one to shake
Shiver me
The three us will move
Water demon

The names are on my hand
I write your name again
Sever honor
Being by myself
Playing time

The game is ill, I stand here conquered, These lines on paper wont mean shit if I don't let them go

The ink of sanity, Drained upon my guilt, I promise to Hold on to your pictures Never take what you're given, Never mend on the bend

Do away with your resolve Lines on paper fading I've given into this mess

Take the time to talk
Walk with me a while
Break a promise
Throw an arm around
Seize the day

I watched you go inside
Take your name this time

watch me do it
Let me break the tide
Breaking water

My hands are fucking still
The words are one to shake
Shiver me
The three us will move
Water demon

The names are on my hand
I write your name again,
Sever honor
Being by myself
Playing time

Never spoken, Never scared, On me, These shores tonight, They pray.

A P H A S I A

Catch, Take it and run, These words were built to hold you down, Never obey.

Spread your toes, let it burn, Feel the wind, you've given into the desolate march of chaos, Flying Dig into the ground below.

Take the pill, you're digging a place so secret, Lies will fall, you will soar, Part the wind, when you've burned your world around you, bridges are all that (remain).

Run, Push, Away, Into the sky,
The ground, Propels, Your will,
And I hate
Defining the winds
And I hate
You run to fly.

Lay back and observe the mess, you've made of the children in your mind, When you're running at those speeds, you don't fall you collide

Catch, Take it and run, You've armed yourself to take the sky, Break the cast,
Spread your toes let it burn, Feel the wind, Deliver the words you'll never forget, Silent, Brooding,
Dig into the ground below
Take the pill, They'll never see your going,
Lies will fall,

You will dig,
Part the wind, When you've burned your world around you, bridges remain, When you burn, The bridges, The water will rise,
The ground, Propels, The sky,
And I hate
Defining the wind
And I hate
You run to fly,

INSURRECTION

seek the skin that contains the name, Never revealed, spit the maker, Hold the key to change, Be the I in you,

Keep the glitch close to your heart and never let them know the answers, Let this imbalance will be your fist, Falling through,

Dig in and stroke the seed of that which you fear, Call it your own and leash the bastard Cradle all the imperfections you know, Watch them take control,

Explode inwards and contain the fragments within the mile of skin
You will feel the green move within you You're marked with strain of the snake

Spit at the maker, It's a fostered lie, Never fail your own, Prevail, Let this imbalance will be your fist,
Insurrection

To slay, The blindness, Fall in line,

You will conceive the truth to be the one you could never be,
And you will push the mask away to take the form of the snake,
The breaking of skin will bring the dawn of birth and learning,
And you will shed the form they spat upon the healing,
And you will push away the mask to take
the form of the snake,

This beautiful green Will run through your veins to essence of the soul,
Essence of the soul,
Essence of the soul,

Push, Cesserate, reign, Snake,
The essence of the soul,
Reign, Snake
To slay the fucking blindness,
Reign, Snake
Snake,
